SUMMARY OF SUBJECTS ACTED UPON:

Subject	Summary
Meeting Called to Order	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meeting was called to order at 10:16 AM
Welcome and Opening Comments of the Chair	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commissioner Dennis Cathey presided over the meeting as the Vice Chair R. Lawton Jordan III, was excused from the meeting for last minute court appearance and Chair, Hillary Stringfellow while attending via phone would need to leave after Executive Session for an appointment. Commissioner Cathey welcomed everyone and stated that there is a full agenda of items to cover and encouraged the public to provide comments and feedback at the appropriate times. Agenda amended to move Hattie Holmes-Sullivan 2012-049 from Preliminary Hearings to Consent Orders.

Subject	Summary
Approval of December 10, 2014 Commission Meeting Minutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Motioned and approved the December 10, 2014 Commission meeting minutes as presented with no corrections. . Motioned by: Commissioner Adams Seconded by: Commissioner Garrett Carried: 4 to 0
Advisory Opinion 2014-03	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jonathan Hawkins gave a brief explanation of his role as outside legal counsel for the Commission in drafting the Advisory Opinions informing the Commission as to the request for an Advisory Opinion. The Commission received a request from Judge Stephen Schuster posing the following question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Whether campaign contributions deposited into a campaign account may be expended by an elected official (e.g. a Superior Court Judge) for the purpose of acquiring a home security system? • Mr. Hawkins made the following analysis: Short answer is no, the campaign finance Act allows contributions to be used only to defray ordinary and necessary expenses occurring in the campaign or in fulfillment or retention of their office. The Act defines “ordinary and necessary” as a list of things that include within that definition and there is some leeway in terms of interpretation of what that might be. The concern he as is that using campaign funds to install permanent improvements to one’s home, if allowed in this instance, would set precedent with a slippery slope going forward which could be expanded and campaign funds could be used to acquire and purchase more and more personal type items. He doesn’t think that campaign contributions are a correct source for these types of items. He feels that counties or other local sources can provided for allowances for this type of capital improvements. • Chair Stringfellow wanted to point out that when she and in-house counsel (Robert and Bethany) had talked over this request for an advisory opinion, one point that they shared with Mr. Hawkins is that now the Campaign Finance Act does allows candidates or officials to rent or lease equipment/materials, such as computers in the fulfillment of their office, but not to purchase an item that is then owned by the candidate after the purchase. With that analogy this would be a permanent improvement that would become the property of the judge or official after their term expires, whereby there would be a financial benefit to the judge or official. It is a distinction that has not been raised before and she doesn’t feel that campaign funds should not be allowed to be used for that purpose.

Subject	Summary
Advisory Opinion 2014-03 (continued)	But that if security could be provided on a lease or rental (it is not the nature of the security, it is that the equipment is not to be a permanent improvement) in a less permanent way then it could be allowed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commissioner Cathey stated that in the short our answer should be stated that “no campaign finances can be used to buy, but can be used to rent or lease”. • Commissioner Garrett commented that he does have a little bit of sympathy for the judges in our modern era that those threats arise in their candidacy. Unfortunately it is the reality of our politics that physical threats arise out of their public status which are security-based and this is something that needs to be addressed with the Legislature and the local entities. He does lean toward the feeling that this is something that should be allowed under a campaign expense, but that it should be done as a lease/rental if possible. • Commissioner Cathey commented that he thinks that in the electronic world that leasing has become more common than owning. • Chair Stringfellow commented that what Commissioner Garrett stated would be authorized under the Act even with this advisory opinion, saying that if threats arose that campaign funds could be used for security bars, extra police or some sort of presence that the candidate or official chose that it is clearly not a permanent improvement. It doesn't rule out having security in another form provided to the candidate or officials. Even though it was a specific question about a security system. • The Commissioners motioned and approved the Advisory Opinion with the provision that the advisory opinion as it is drafted now needs to be refined/ revised in the interest of answering the Judge's question and recirculated to the Commission for one final review and be republished again before the next quarterly meeting.  Motioned by: Chair Stringfellow Seconded by: Commissioner Adams Carried: 4 to 0
